Mexico City

Experience life in the city. Understand the culture, history and adventures that Mexico City holds.

Located in the center of the country, Mexico's capital is known for its vibrant and eclectic atmosphere. Mexico City is the cultural, financial, governmental, and entertainment capital of the country. There are museums that reflect the rich culture and history of the country and important art exhibits are shown in a great number of galleries. Travel is convenient to important towns such as Taxco, Querétaro, or the magical Oaxaca. Archeological zones are also found in the city and an hour away, demonstrating the great achievements of prehispanic cultures that gave place, along with that of Spain, to our contemporary society.

ITAM is located in the picturesque neighborhood of San Angel. Within walking distance you can find historical buildings, parks, restaurants for all tastes, upscale bars, shopping malls and sport centers. San Angel is famous for its preserved colonial areas, 17th century churches and its tranquil atmosphere reminiscent of another era. Another special attraction in the area is the Saturday Bazaar, in which you can buy a great variety of local crafts, antiques and works of art in an environment of colorful splendor.

Language of Instruction

Most subjects are taught in Spanish. We recommend that students have at least one year of university-level Spanish with good reading and listening skills. In most cases it is possible to secure permission from the professor to submit papers and exams in English. The readings for most classes tend to be in English. A limited number of classes are taught in English, primarily in the undergraduate programs of Business and International Relations and advanced Economics.

Special Summer Programs

ITAM offers three special undergraduate summer programs:

- Mexico: A Better Perspective
- Business and Culture in Mexico
- Global Legal Skills: Civil and Common Law Perspectives

Students may study additional Spanish language classes with any of these programs

Spanish Language Support

A supplementary Spanish course is available for international students in most periods. The level of the course will be adjusted to the mean ability of the group. Students with advanced levels of Spanish may take the Spanish Grammar and Composition course given to regular ITAM students.

Special support for language learning is also available through CARLE, ITAM's Center for Writing and Language, which offers specialized Software for Spanish as a Second Language, Spanish Composition for native speakers, as well as training in other languages.
