Course Selection Information:

To complete the course selection procedures, we kindly ask you to:

Consult the List of Courses (available on our website).

Choose the courses you intend to be enrolled in during your exchange semester taking into consideration:

- Number of ECTS: credit points
- Teaching Language: There is a wide range of English-language elective courses.
- Course content: Please consult the syllabus of the courses here (UG) and here (MSC).

Note:

› The list of courses offered to exchange students is made available on our website.
› Courses have limited vacancies.
› Places will be filled on a “first-come first-served” basis.
› Some courses require students to fulfill pre-requisites before reading. The pre-requisites are listed in the online course catalogue. Please note that students, along with their home University’s Academic Advisors, are responsible for checking if they have done similar pre-requisites in their home universities or not. Católica-Lisbon does not check if students comply or not with the pre-requisites of our courses.
Application and Course Selection

Workload allowed per semester

Exchange Students: 30 ECTS is the normal semester workload for a CATÓLICA-LISBON Undergraduate student; and 28 ECTS for a Master student. Exchange students, however, should follow their home University guidelines.

The maximum workload per semester for an exchange student is 33 ECTS (including the optional and paid Portuguese Language course). There is no minimum workload per semester established for exchange students. However, students have to be enrolled at least in one course per semester.

Assessment methods:

- Assiduity
- Presentations/Group Projects/Assignments
- Class participation
- Quizzes
- Examinations

Grading:

Students grading is based on their semester work. It may include questionnaires, mid-term tests, group assignments, etc. There is also a final exam at the end of the semester. CATÓLICA-LISBON grading scale is 0-20, 10 being the passing mark.

In cases of overlapping of academic calendar or proven illness, CATÓLICA-LISBON may allow exams abroad:

- Sending CATÓLICA-LISBON’s exams to be supervised at Partner Universities.

IMPORTANT: subjected to the approval of the Academic Board of Directors, Professor of the course and Partner University.
Portuguese Language Course

A Portuguese Language Course for exchange students is provided by the Faculty of Human Sciences. It aims to enable students to tackle the most important daily situations and to get to know Portuguese culture and traditions.

The course is offered every semester, starting at the beginning of September and February.

Crash Course

Total of 18 hours (1,5 ECTS credit points)
The Crash Course will take place during the first 3 weeks of each semester.

Extensive Course

Total of 54 hours (4,5 ECTS credit points)
The Extensive Course takes place along the semester and comprises 4,5 hours per week. The ECTS for language courses will be credited only to those students who pass the final exam.

Portuguese Language Courses are paid separately. Information on the fees are sent by e-mail.
Preparing for Departure

After completing the Application and Course Selection Procedures, the International Relations Office will provide you with the following information by e-mail:

Accommodation

International Relations Office offers you assistance to find both Provisional and Permanent accommodation in Lisbon. To help you prepare your stay, we will send you by e-mail a list of accommodation search links, information on our accommodation partners and other useful information.

Visa/International Health Insurance

Non-European exchange students are required to apply for a student visa prior to their arrival in Lisbon. CATÓLICA-LISBON issues a special acceptance letter for visa purposes. This letter is sent directly to the students’ home University so they can present it at the Portuguese Consulate/Embassy of their country of origin, along with the remaining documentation, to apply for the student visa.

Exchange students are required to have international health insurance only for visa application purposes.
Preparing for Departure

Personal Information

In order to access all important academic and administrative information in CATÓLICA-LISBON students' personal area we will send you by e-mail your personal data: student number, login and password.

Course Enrollment

After the course selection procedures are complete you will be able to access the list of courses in which you are enrolled in and your final schedule for the semester.

Welcome Day & Outdoor Activities

Before your arrival, you will receive detailed information about the special activities prepared for you, to introduce you to the University and Lisbon.
Before Leaving Home

To ensure a smooth transition to student life in Lisbon, it is important to make sure all your paperwork and documentation is valid before you depart. Take a look at the checklist below to have a stress-free arrival in Portugal.

a) Make sure the International Relations Office has received your online application form and required documents.

b) Make sure you bring your national identity card or a valid passport.

c) Bring your medical/travel insurance and other relevant documents. If you are from an EU country, make sure you have the European Health Insurance Card.

d) Take any routine medical checks or vaccinations, if necessary.

e) Order travelers cheques or enough Euros for your first couple of weeks.

f) Budget for your life in Portugal - check airfares, tuition fees and living expenses. You can have an idea of the living costs here.

g) Make sure you have a list of useful contact numbers and remember to include the following:
   1) Phone number and address of CATÓLICA-LISBON International Relations Office;
   2) Phone number and address of your provisional accommodation.
