Graduate: 2 courses per module

Orientation

This mandatory program, offered on the Friday before classes begin, provides students with useful academic, immigration and practical information. Optional cultural activities are offered on Saturday.

Learning styles and expectations

At UTDT students are expected to take responsibility for their own learning. Class attendance is required. Students will be encouraged to read widely, analyze what has been read and will be expected to understand the material covered in lectures, not just memorize it. Teaching styles vary but, generally speaking, independent thought and discussion are encouraged, as well as class participation.

Examinations

All undergraduate courses have two evaluation instances which need to be approved to pass the course. Most courses do not have make up exams. Missing or failing an exam will result in course failure.

Transcripts

Transcripts are sent to the home university coordinator approximately one month after the last day of the exam period. Students taking Master's in International Relations courses should expect this time to double.

Practical information

Extracurricular activities

UTDT offers an array of activities that allow international students to meet local ones, practice their Spanish and feel more integrated into the campus culture. Incoming students are encouraged to participate in the orientation program and ambassadors & language exchange programs. They are also welcome to join the student clubs (Consulting; Current Economics; De (constructing); Entrepreneurship; Finance; Political Science; Sustainable Development; (Re) Thinking) and organizations (Student Government, UTDT's magazine and the Social Action group). Our sports (basketball, chess, golf, soccer, running, swimming, tennis and yoga) are amateur and open to everyone, as well as the theatre, choir, and singing workshops and the different social and cultural events organized by the International Programs Department.

Ambassadors Program

Incoming students may opt to have an Ambassador. Ambassadors are local UTDT students who volunteer to welcome and support incoming visitors.

Accommodation

UTDT is a non-residential campus. Accepted students receive information about accommodation options in different neighborhoods. They are also encouraged to use our closed Facebook group to find roommates and receive recommendations from previous incoming students at UTDT.

Health insurance

A comprehensive Argentine health insurance is mandatory to register at UTDT. Please refer to www.utdt.edu/exchange for further information.

Estimated monthly living costs

Estimated living costs are included merely as a guide, as the lifestyles of students vary greatly. When budgeting, students should also consider costs related to visa, international travel, etc.

- > Room and board: U$D 700
- > Health insurance: U$D 80
- > Transportation: U$D 20
- > Books and supplies: U$D 15

Immigration

Students will need to obtain a visa prior to entering Argentina. Please refer to this link for further information.
