Required workload

Undergraduate: between 3 and 5 courses per semester

Graduate: 4 courses per quarter

Orientation

This mandatory program, offered on the Friday before classes begin, provides students with useful academic, immigration and practical information. Optional cultural activities (with a small fee) are offered on Saturday.

Learning styles and expectations

At UTDT students are expected to take responsibility for their own learning. Class attendance is required. Students will be encouraged to read widely, analyze what has been read and will be expected to understand the material covered in lectures, not just memorize it. Teaching styles vary but, generally speaking, independent thought and discussion are encouraged, as well as class participation.

Examinations

All undergraduate courses have two evaluation instances which need to be approved to pass the course. Most courses do not have make up exams. Missing or failing an exam leads to failing the course.

Transcripts

Two transcripts are sent to the home university coordinator approximately one month after the last day of the exam period. Students taking Master’s in International Relations courses should expect this time to double.
